REORGANIZED DEBTORS' SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL REPLY TO SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE OF CLAIMANT TO DEBTORS' OBJECTION TO PROOF OF CLAIM NUMBER 1294 FILED BY OHIO BUREAU OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION

("SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL REPLY REGARDING CLAIM FILED BY OHIO BUREAU OF WORKERS COMPENSATION")

DPH Holdings Corp. and its affiliated reorganized debtors in the above-captioned cases (together with DPH Holdings Corp., the "Reorganized Debtors") hereby submit the Reorganized Debtors' Second Supplemental Reply To Response Of Claimant To Reorganized Debtors' Objections To Proof of Claim Number 1294 Filed By Ohio Bureau Of Workers' Compensation, and respectfully represent as follows:

DISCUSSION

1. On December 6, 2010, the Reorganized Debtors filed the Reorganized Debtors' Supplemental Reply To Supplemental Response Of Claimant To Reorganized Debtors' Objections To Proof of Claim Number 1294 Filed By Ohio Bureau Of Workers' Compensation (Docket No. 20997) (the "Supplemental Reply"). In the Supplemental Reply, the Reorganized Debtors requested that the Court disallow the Proof of Claim¹ because all of the Debtors' prepetition obligations on account of workers' compensation have been paid in full. (Supplemental Reply ¶¶ 15-16.) In its Response Of The Ohio Bureau Of Workers' Compensation To Reorganized Debtors' Supplemental Reply To Response Of Claimant To Debtors' Objection To Proof Of Claim Number 1294 Filed By Ohio Bureau Of Workers' Compensation (Docket No. 21003) (the "Supplemental Response"), however, the Bureau contends that "there are unpaid assessments which are capable of concrete calculation, and there will be future assessments." (Supplemental Response ¶ 2.) The Bureau does not provide any further detail as to the assessments that it believes to be owed, but the Bureau can only be referring to assessments levied after the Effective Date. Attached as Exhibit A hereto are copies of all of the checks issued by the Debtors to the Bureau and the corresponding invoices from the Bureau.

2. As to any post-Effective Date assessments, the Supplemental Reply described the overwhelming weight of authority, including this Court's recent ruling on the substantially similar Michigan Funds Administration claim, that treats annually assessed taxes as separate claims that arise each year. (Supplemental Reply ¶¶ 18-19.) Nonetheless, the Bureau summarily dismisses the majority view, observing that "the income and sales excise taxes cited in the Supplemental Reply arise based upon the underlying income earned or sales generated in the respective period."² (Supplemental Response ¶ 3.) Of course, the precise subject matter of an excise tax is not dispositive here. The appropriate test to determine whether a tax assessment of any type constitutes a new claim or relates back to an existing claim turns on whether the taxes arise annually or accrue on a continuous basis. See In re Sage-Dey, Inc., 170 B.R. 46, 50-51 (Bankr. N.D.N.Y. 1994).

3. The Bureau instead weds itself to the unpublished decision In re Belden Locker Co., No. 06-60316, 2008 WL 762243 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio Mar. 21, 2008), because that case specifically addresses the type of workers' compensation assessments asserted in the Proof of Claim. As discussed in the Supplemental Reply, the reasoning in Belden Locker is unsound and should not be adopted here. (Supplemental Reply ¶ 20-21.) In particular, Belden Locker fails to even mention the legal authorities adhering to the majority view that annually assessed taxes constitute separate claims or the mechanics of how assessments are calculated and levied under Ohio law.

² The Bureau also seeks to distinguish the cases cited by the Reorganized Debtors by noting that the Proof of Claim was timely filed. No doubt, the Proof of Claim was filed before the bar date for prepetition claims. But to the extent that the Bureau is also seeking to assert a separate claim for postpetition or post-Effective Date assessments, such claim is untimely. The final bar date to assert administrative expense claims against the Debtors was November 5, 2009. (Modified Plan § 10.5.)

4. Rather, the analysis in Belden Locker hinged on the bankruptcy court's incorrect and incomplete understanding that claims for assessments, like insurance-premium payments, arise simply by virtue of having employees prior to the petition date. Premium and assessment claims, however, arise out of different circumstances: premium claims against state-insured employers arise as a result of having employees during a specified coverage period and assessment claims against self-insured employers arise on an annual basis based upon workers' compensation payments made during the previous calendar year. Moreover, even in the context of claims for premium payments, the mere fact of having employees does not create springing future claims for premiums for periods beyond the coverage period. Claims for workers' compensation insurance premiums arise as a result of having employees during the particular period of insurance coverage because the employees contemporaneously receive the benefit of the coverage; it does not impose an obligation upon the employer to pay premiums for subsequent periods. Surely the Bureau cannot be arguing that, in the event of an intervening bankruptcy filing, the prepetition act of employment would convert premiums for postpetition insurance coverage into prepetition claims while the employer continues to operate as a debtor-in-possession. To the contrary, postpetition premiums would constitute separate claims entitled to administrative-expense priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. Likewise, separate assessment claims arise each year.³ In an apparent attempt to give its claim for future assessments some form of continuity between prepetition

³ Inexplicably, the Belden Locker court did not discuss section 4123.35(J) of the Ohio Revised Code, which clearly imposes an assessment each year on an employer primarily based upon workers' compensation payments

employment and the workers' compensation payments used to calculate subsequent assessments, the Bureau indicates that assessments are "owed to [the Bureau] on account of actual and projected injuries that occurred while the Debtor enjoyed the benefits of self-insured status." (Supplemental Response ¶ 1.) This description is imprecise, at best. Subject to certain adjustments not germane here, Ohio workers' compensation assessments are levied each year against a self-insured employer based upon (1) the "total amount of paid compensation for the previous calendar year attributable to all amenable self-insuring employers" and (2) the "total amount of paid compensation for the previous calendar year that is attributable to the individual self-insuring employer."⁴ OHIO REV. CODE ANN. § 4123.35(J). Total compensation paid by the Debtors in a calendar year is comprised of payments relating to both prepetition and postpetition injuries—although never "projected injuries." Thus, while the date of injury determines when a claim arises for workers' compensation benefits, In re Olga Coal Co., 194 B.R. 741, 746 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996), the date of injury is irrelevant for purposes of determining when a claim arises for workers' compensation assessments.⁵

6. Given Ohio's clear statutory calendar-year assessment framework, the Bureau's view that future assessments should relate back to the prepetition time of employment is without merit. Taken to its logical conclusion—as discussed above in the context of insurance made by the individual self-insuring employer and other participating employers during the previous calendar year.

⁴ A third variable factor is the Bureau's discretionary determination of the total assessments and administrative costs for the year the assessments are being levied. OHIO REV. CODE ANN. § 4123.35(J)(1).

⁵ Indeed, any future assessments that the Bureau might seek to levy against the Reorganized Debtors would benefit only the Bureau itself, and not the Debtors' former employees who are entitled to workers' compensation benefits as a result of their injuries. Employers no longer operating as self-insurers in Ohio—like the Reorganized Debtors—are subject to assessments only for administrative costs and contributions to the surplus fund established to guaranty the solvency of Ohio's state-run insurance program. OHIO REV. CODE ANN. § 4123.35(J); OHIO ADMIN. CODE R. 4123-17-32(G).

premiums—the Belden Locker approach endorsed by the Bureau would allow an employer to continue operating as self-insurer after filing for bankruptcy relief but would not give the Bureau an administrative claim for assessments levied during the bankruptcy. Such a bizarre result is not consistent with the Bankruptcy Code or the weight of case law analyzing how tax claims arise. Accordingly, the Proof of Claim should be disallowed because all prepetition assessments previously levied against the Reorganized Debtors have been paid in full and the Bureau is not entitled to bootstrap future assessments into such Claim.⁶

⁶ In addition, and contrary to the Bureau's assertion in the Supplemental Response, the Reorganized Debtors may very well contest that assessments asserted in the Proof of Claim are entitled to priority treatment under section 507(a)(8)(E) of the Bankruptcy Code. In the event that the Court concludes that postpetition, post-Effective-Date assessments relate back to the time of prepetition employment, the Reorganized Debtors reserve the right to challenge the relative priority of assessments based on payments to the individual workers' compensation beneficiaries. A substantial majority of these payments relate to individuals who were employed by the Debtors more than three years prior to the Petition Date—or were employed by the Debtors after the Petition Date—and therefore would fall outside the scope of section 507(a)(8)(E).

WHEREFORE the Reorganized Debtors respectfully request this Court enter an order (a) sustaining the objection with respect to the Claim, (b) disallowing and expunging the Claim in its entirety, and (c) granting such further and other relief this Court deems just and proper.

*Self Insuring employer guaranty fund will be assessed for the calendar year 2004 and will be based on a rate of .1349. The guaranty fund is evaluated annually for assessment to ensure a minimum balance and to guarantee payments of claims against the fund. For the first time since 1995, a guaranty fund assessment is being levied. No minimum balance applies to this assessment.

Disabled Workers' Relief Fund (DWRP) is assessed @ 100 % of the benefits paid to the claimant.

NOTE: For those employers granted self insurance during the first (1st) half of the calendar year 2005, your assessment was prorated based on the number of days remaining in the state fiscal year. The current state fiscal year began July 1, 2004 and ends June 30, 2005.

PAYMENT INSTRUCTIONS:

July 2006

Dear SI employer:

Senate Bill 7 was recently passed by the Ohio legislature and as part of the bill, self insured employers that fail to TIMELY pay their SEMI-ANNUAL assessments will be assessed a MINIMUM penalty of five hundred dollars ($500.00). ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENTS MAY BE CHARGED ACCORDING TO THE FOLLOWING SCHEDULE:

- 1) For an assessment from sixty-one to ninety days past due, the prime interest rate, multiplied by the assessment due;
- 2) For an assessment from ninety-one to one hundred twenty days past due, the prime interest rate plus two per cent, multiplied by the assessment due;
- 3) For an assessment from one hundred twenty-one to one hundred fifty days past due, the prime interest rate plus four per cent, multiplied by the assessment due;
- 4) For an assessment from one hundred fifty-one to one hundred eighty days past due, the prime interest rate plus six per cent, multiplied by the assessment due;
- 5) For an assessment from one hundred eighty-one to two hundred ten days past due, the prime interest rate plus eight per cent, multiplied by the assessment due;
- 6) For each additional thirty-day period or portion thereof that an assessment remains past due after it has remained past due for more than two hundred ten days, the prime interest rate plus eight per cent, multiplied by the assessment due.

For purposes of this division, "prime interest rate" means the average bank prime rate, and the administrator shall determine the prime interest rate in the same manner as a county auditor determines the average bank prime rate under section 929.02 of the Revised Code.

Should you have any questions regarding the new penalty rule, please do not hesitate to contact the Self Insured Department @ sinq@bwc.state.oh.us or call 1-800-OHIOBWC.

Dear SI employer:

Senate Bill 7 was recently passed by the Ohio legislature and as part of the bill, self insured employers that fail to TIMELY pay their SEMI-ANNUAL assessments will be assessed a MINIMUM penalty of five hundred dollars ($500.00). ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENTS MAY BE CHARGED ACCORDING TO THE FOLLOWING SCHEDULE:

- 1) For an assessment from sixty-one to ninety days past due, the prime interest rate, multiplied by the assessment due;
- 2) For an assessment from ninety-one to one hundred twenty days past due, the prime interest rate plus two per cent, multiplied by the assessment due;
- 3) For an assessment from one hundred twenty-one to one hundred fifty days past due, the prime interest rate plus four per cent, multiplied by the assessment due;
- 4) For an assessment from one hundred fifty-one to one hundred eighty days past due, the prime interest rate plus six per cent, multiplied by the assessment due;
- 5) For an assessment from one hundred eighty-one to two hundred ten days past due, the prime interest rate plus eight per cent, multiplied by the assessment due;
- 6) For each additional thirty-day period or portion thereof that an assessment remains past due after it has remained past due for more than two hundred ten days, the prime interest rate plus eight per cent, multiplied by the assessment due.

For purposes of this division, "prime interest rate" means the average bank prime rate, and the administrator shall determine the prime interest rate in the same manner as a county auditor determines the average bank prime rate under section 929.02 of the Revised Code.

*BWC assesses the self-insuring employer Guaranty Fund for the 2007 calendar year on a rate of 0.0527. BWC evaluates the Guaranty Fund annually for assessment to ensure a minimum balance and to guarantee payments of claims against the fund. No minimum balance applies to this assessment. In calculating the Disabled Workers' Relief Fund (DWRF), BWC assesses 100 percent of the benefits paid to the claimants.

NOTE: BWC prorated the assessment of employers granted self insurance during the first half of the 2008 calendar year based on the number of days remaining in the state fiscal year. The current state fiscal year began July 1, 2008, and ends June 30, 2009.
